

Caseworker 3 days a week, £30,000- £32,000 pro rata, hybrid working.

If you're looking for an opportunity to be part of an intersectional feminist movement working to raise awareness about Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) and support survivors affected by VAWG, then this vacancy may be just what you are searching for!

The Rape and Sexual Abuse Support Centre (Rape Crisis South London) is looking for someone with demonstrable experience working with vulnerable adults, an understanding of working in a trauma-informed way and a passion for social justice to join the Advocacy team.

The role will require working with women 18 and over who are survivors of sexual violence and require support with their housing and/or welfare benefits. The case worker will support throughout the survivor's journey with housing and welfare benefits, working alongside survivors of sexual violence to navigate the complexities of these systems and services and advocating for survivor experience to be recognised and acknowledged.

We will provide the successful candidate with:

- Monthly clinical supervision
- A salary of £30,000 - £32,000, dependent on experience, pro rata
- Regular CPD and developmental opportunities
- Annual leave entitlement is 27 days a year plus 8 bank holidays (pro rata) plus the period of 25 December -1 January.
- NEST pension scheme; 3% employer contribution and 5% employee contribution.
- Travel loan and cycle to work scheme.
- Access to a range of benefits including My GP Anytime, My Employment Assistance Programme, My Online Health Assessments, My Perks and The Health Shield scheme.

The successful candidate will work 2.5 days per week between Monday – Friday 8am – 6pm. This is a hybrid role which includes a minimum of one day a week in our East Croydon office.

The post is open to female applicants only as the role is deemed to be a genuine occupational requirement under Schedule 9, Paragraph 1 of the Equality Act 2010.

RASASC is an equal opportunities employer, and we are particularly keen to receive applications from women underrepresented in the violence against women and girls movement.

To apply please download and complete the above application form and equal opportunities form and return them to recruitment@rasasc.org.uk. Please put 'Case Worker' as the subject of the email.

- Job Description and Person Specification
- Application Form
- Equal Opportunities Form

If you would like an informal discussion about the role, please contact Raeesa (Advocacy Service Manager) at Raeesa.Advocacy@rasasc.org.uk to arrange this.

We will assess applications on a rolling basis and applications may close at any time, if we find enough high-quality candidates.

Please ensure the application is sent in a standard Microsoft word or PDF format

Please note CVs will not be considered as an application for this post