

Core Independent Sexual Violence Advocate (ISVA) £30,000- £32,000 FTE , hybrid working.

If you're looking for an opportunity to be part of an intersectional feminist movement working to raise awareness about Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) and support survivors affected by VAWG, then this vacancy may be just what you are searching for!

The Rape and Sexual Abuse Support Centre (Rape Crisis South London) is looking for someone with demonstrable experience of working with vulnerable adults, an understanding of working in a trauma-informed way and a passion for social justice to join the Advocacy team.

The role will require working with women and girls who are survivors of sexual violence and are thinking about reporting to the police, or who have reported. The Core ISVA will support throughout the survivor's journey with the Criminal Justice System (CJS). This is a pivotal role working alongside survivors of sexual violence to navigate the complexities of the CJS and supporting to amplify the voices of lived experience. You don't need an ISVA qualification to apply as this will be offered to successful candidates.

We will provide the successful candidate with:

- Monthly clinical supervision
- A salary of £30,000 - £32,000, dependent on experience
- Regular CPD and developmental opportunities
- An annual leave entitlement of 27 days per year, plus the days between Christmas Day and New Year
- NEST pension scheme; 3% employer contribution and 5% employee contribution.
- Travel loan and cycle to work scheme.
- Access to a range of benefits including My GP Anytime, My Employment Assistance Programme, My Online Health Assessments, My Perks and The Health Shield scheme.

The position is offered on a flexible basis and we are open to discussing hours and place of work, with a minimum of one day a week in our East Croydon office. Please note this role will require regular travel throughout South London to support survivors throughout the process of reporting to attending court.

The post is open to female applicants only as the role is deemed to be a genuine occupational requirement under Schedule 9, Paragraph 1 of the Equality Act 2010.

RASASC is an equal opportunities employer, and we are particularly keen to receive applications from women underrepresented in the violence against women and girls movement.

To apply please download and complete the above application form and equal opportunities form and return them to recruitment@rasasc.org.uk. Please put 'ISVA' as the subject of the email.

- Job Description and Person Specification
- Application Form
- Equal Opportunities Form

If you would like an informal discussion about the role, please contact Raesa (Advocacy Service Manager) at Raesa.Advocacy@rasasc.org.uk to arrange this.

We will assess applications on a rolling basis and applications may close at any time.

Please ensure the application is sent in a standard Microsoft word or PDF format

Please note CVs will not be considered as an application for this post